Bluegrass Wings

GWRRA KY Chapter C

Lexington, Kentucky

Friends for Fun, Safety and Knowledge

Participate with the group that enjoys riding
as much as you do!!

Bluegrass Wings is one of two chapters that were chartered in 1983 by the GWRRA headquarters in Phoenix, AZ. Louisville Chapter A is the other. Lexington has always been the home of the Bluegrass Wings with the majority of its participants living in or around Fayette County. It is currently one of 9 chapters within our district. All Kentucky chapters belong to Region N which includes chapters in North Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia.

Chapter C meets on the third Saturday of each month at Roosters Restaurant at 124 Marketplace Drive. This is at the intersection of Nicholasville Road and Man O War. Social time and meals start at 11:00 AM and the formal meeting starts at 12:00 pm. This is a family oriented environment with a great menu and even better pricing. The chapter has monthly rides scheduled which depart from our marshaling area behind the Marathon Station on Paris Pike unless otherwise indicated.

GWRRA Profile

The Goldwing Road Riders Association (GWRRA) is the world's largest single motorcycle social organization for owners and riders of Honda Goldwing and Valkyrie motorcycles. Founded in 1977, GWRRA has grown to more than 70,000 participants located in the US, Canada and 45+ foreign countries with headquarters in Phoenix, AZ. GWRRA is comprised of over 800 chapters and managed by more than 4000 volunteer leaders working with participants to foster safe, enjoyable riding while also improving the public image and perception of motorcycling.
